

The Signs of the Saviour

Final Memory Verse Review

Letters from God

This additional resource will allow you to review the past several memory verses with your students. Simply glue Side One and Side Two together to create the "Letters from God." Have the students match the letter with the correct mailbox. This game can be played individually at the beginning of each class or as a relay game with teams during the Sunday school hour.